Message from our Board and Leadership

A Year of Progress Amidst Challenges

*Carlton D. Pendleton
President & CEO*

*Joann H. Beaudoin
Chair, Board of Directors*

As Maine's most comprehensive provider of behavioral health services for children, adults and families, Sweetser is one of the state's many valuable resources. We are committed to providing quality services and supporting productive lives.

Although one in four people experience a mental health issue at some point in their lives, treatment outcomes for people with serious mental illness have higher success rates than well established treatments for heart disease. However, more than 65 percent of adults and nearly 80 percent of children who need mental health services do not receive them.

Sweetser is working to change this. We are helping Maine communities discover hope through locally accessible and expert behavioral healthcare. In 1991, we served about 200 children; during this past year, we surpassed 20,000. We have celebrated many accomplishments and new initiatives this year, including new programs and facilities, technological advances and international recognition.

Sweetser has also faced significant challenges this year, which we have met with a focus on the impact on those we serve. The organization has absorbed approximately $4 million in budget cuts, resulting in some service reductions and straining our ability to subsidize care for those who cannot afford it. We also made the major decision this year to close our Outpatient Services in both Portland and Saco. Given the number of people we have been supporting in their local communities, this was an extremely difficult decision. We are fortunate that a partner came forward to help ensure seamless transitions for our clients.

All of the changes and process improvements we have made over the past year are directly related to our goal of developing responsive, integrated networks of care that reflect our commitment to customer satisfaction and positive outcomes. We continue to search for ways to best meet the needs of those we serve.

Sweetser will face more challenges in the not-too-distant future—but we're up for it. We continue to have an involved board and donor base, a committed staff, and a bright future given the current environment. Our respect and appreciation goes to every member of the Sweetser team, our thanks to the community for their support of our mission, and an extremely warm welcome to those who are just becoming affiliated with the organization. We look forward to meeting next year's challenges with you.

"I would go above and beyond every day for the kids at Sweetser."

Youth and Family Counselor*

Volunteer Profile:

Rita Nelson

Rita Nelson of Brunswick has volunteered at Sweetser for the past two years as a mentor for a twelve-year-old girl named Jodi, getting together with her two or three times each month for various activities, including sewing, cooking and more. Rita often invites Jodi to join Rita and her family for outings, including boating trips, museums and ballet performances.

Rita's goal is to be a solid, stable presence in Jodi's life, one that inspires her to lead her life in a positive direction. Jodi's mother has asked Rita to "be a grandmother to Jodi," and Rita has accepted that challenge with enthusiasm.

Volunteer Rita Nelson and husband Robert.

Sweetser's volunteers add life experiences, diverse interests and unique abilities to our network of care—and they are essential to our work. It is their dedication that makes Sweetser a leading behavioral healthcare organization. Thank you to all of our many volunteers for your tireless efforts.

Creating a Gift for the Future

Don and Nancy Morse wanted to do something special for Maine people, especially children who are physically and mentally challenged. They decided to establish a charitable remainder trust to help fulfill their desire to benefit Sweetser, Maine Medical Center and Southern Maine Medical Center. Don has also contributed significantly to the University of New England.

The charitable trust allows the Morses to receive a generous income while they enjoy retirement, knowing full well their philanthropic wishes will carry on after they are gone.

“Local people supported me and my business, so this is a way we can support them in return,” explains Don. Born and raised in Wells, Maine, Don was co-owner of A.M. Morse & Sons Lumber and Building Materials, a company that grew as a result of his unique relationships with local folks. Don’s strong belief in personal service attracted him to Sweetser, because of the organization’s commitment to personal service for children and families.

“We want to help make a difference in our own special way,” says Nancy. A Maine native from Lubec, Nancy feels the same as her husband. Her experience as a junior high school teacher with a Master’s degree from the University of Maine at Orono influenced her to establish two funds through the Maine Community Foundation to provide scholarships for high school seniors to pursue higher education, and support a variety of projects for people or communities in need.

Don and Nancy learned about Sweetser from former Sweetser Board President Sue Megathlin. “We didn’t know much about Sweetser,” recalls Nancy, “but we are pleased with the great work being done.” Don adds, “Sweetser has a great legacy and now we are part of it.”

Don and Nancy Morse are leaving a special legacy to Sweetser.

“Our school-based counselor has made a significant difference in the lives of several of our students. Students and their families are finally getting the counseling services that they need right here at school.”

*– Yvonne Thomas
Guidance Counselor, Vinalhaven School*

Sweetser Friends

We are grateful to our many supporters who helped raise $1,185,855 in the 2005 fiscal year. These funds provide valuable support to many Sweetser programs.

More than 790 friends contributed to the rebuilding of a new barn and Experiential Learning Center on the Saco campus, after a devastating fire in 2004 destroyed our Ricker farm.

Sweetser’s largest fundraiser, the “Sold on Kids” spring auction, raised $68,160 to help children and families in crisis. The Sweetser/Prime Motor Group Golf Classic at Sable Oaks raised an additional $48,000. More than 2,400 people participated in the Sweetser holiday gift tag program, providing holiday presents for children served by Sweetser and their families.

Thank you for helping to make these accomplishments possible.
Your support is greatly appreciated.

Client Profile:

Child and Family Community Services

As a single mother of three children between the ages of 6 and 13, Laurie has her hands full. Scott, Sara and Shane have histories of directing their energy down destructive paths, and all—including Laurie—have been diagnosed with, or are suspected to have, attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder.

Before the family connected with Sweetser five years ago, Scott (the oldest son) had been fighting, stealing, setting fires and running away on a weekly basis. The children would often have the house in disarray before their mother woke at 6 a.m. Laurie had been on the verge of sending Scott into the custody of the Department of Health and Human Services.

Then Laurie was referred to Sweetser. Ebie Brown, a family support specialist, along with Sweetser’s case management staff, have been working with Laurie and Scott ever since to practice more productive ways of communicating and coping.

According to Ebie, Laurie has demonstrated that she is able to gain control over her household, which had previously been impossible. She has stopped threatening her children. She sets limits and follows through. She has learned that Scott needs clear, direct communication. And Scott now uses coping skills when he becomes disappointed or angry. He listens to his mother and makes an effort to seek clarification when needed.

Recently, Laurie had to say “no” to Scott joining the school football team because of an injury and his performance in classes. Scott was disappointed but said to his mother, “you’re right.” Both Laurie and Ebie were thrilled.

Employee Profile:

Holly Tracy

Holly Tracy

“It’s all about helping families,” says Holly Tracy, clinical supervisor of Child and Family Community Services in Knox and Waldo counties. “I am committed to supporting children and families to help them rise from their challenges.”

Holly joined Sweetser in 1999 as a school-based therapist serving the schools of Tenant’s Harbor, Thomaston and St. George. She was recently promoted to clinical supervisor of school-based clinicians in 23 schools from Lincoln County to near Bangor. Recipient of Sweetser’s 2005 Laurence S. Garland, Jr., Award for her exemplary service in the community and excellence in the workplace, Holly is a strong supporter of Sweetser’s philosophy about school-based work. “Connecting with a person in their own setting—whether that’s at school, with their family or in the community—is the best way to truly understand their situation.”

Holly says that Sweetser’s dedication to keeping staff members trained on evidence-based practice is part of what makes her proud to be an employee. “We work for a dynamic organization that changes with the times, and it’s all toward a positive end. At Sweetser, autonomy, creativity, and values are not only encouraged—they are also rewarded.”

In addition to her work with Sweetser, Holly serves on the board of Freedom Riders, a Warren-based therapeutic horseback riding program.
